Troy also updated on the Midtown parking lot. The alley is paved and the city is going to ignite tomorrow (6/15/22) to request $50,000 to complete the alley. It is less than what ignite initially budgeted, and the project was completed in a timely manner.

McEuen Parking had flooding on Friday and there will be claims due to some vehicles experiencing water damage. Undergoing work is going to bring a boat garage off the mooring docks for the fire boat. The fire boat is currently parked at Blackwell Island.
