2021 Annual Report

Coeur d'Alene Police Department

Message from the Chief:

Although 2021 was a difficult year for our nation and brought many challenges locally, I am extremely proud of the work done by the men and women of the Coeur d'Alene Police Department. In a year that saw crime rise in many parts of the country, crime was reduced in our city. In a time when community / police relations struggled, we worked hard to foster those relationships.

We recognize that the partnership with our community is the cornerstone of an effective police department, so in 2021 we built upon our already strong community relationships through our civilian use of force review board, and our participation in Halloween activities on Sherman and in several neighborhoods. We also worked closely with bar owners and the downtown businesses to curb some of the problems experienced in that part of town.

In 2022 we will expand our community programs by expanding our block watch program, hosting events such as coffee with a cop and youth-based activities, working towards improving participation in the national night out event, establishing new programs such as the crime free multi- housing program, and hosting a civilian police academy.

We look forward to competently and professionally serving you, the citizens of Coeur d'Alene.

Lee White
