- Families must remain in the lobby or student lounge until instructor begins class. No running or horseplay allowed in the studio.
- If your child is late to class, please have him/her stand at the entrance of the dance floor until the instructor signals for them to enter class.
- Please keep family members and small children in the lobby and away from the studio dance floor to minimize distraction in class. Family members can observe class during our showcase week at the end of the session.

- Please make every effort to have your young dancer use the restroom before class.
